To make sure everyone is aware and on the same page, Floyd's of Leadville objects to this production both on the grounds that it will occur after the discovery cutoff and that it seeks attorney client communications and is privileged.

Thanks for the call, Chris. As discussed, please confirm that you accept service. Also, if you confirm that you will not object to producing documents after the upcoming October 18, 2024, close of fact discovery in the above-referenced matter – and counsel for the other parties confirm they also have no such objection – then we agree to extend the deadline for production to October 25, 2024.

With respect to privilege, we understand you object to producing to us any potentially privileged communications. We're working with plaintiff's counsel to resolve the privilege issue and expect to have that resolved, one way or another, relatively soon.

Our 30(b)(6) objection is ripe for an order from the judge, so hopefully that will be resolved soon – one way or another. Assuming that's the case, we can revisit your privilege objection then.

We don't have a deal, so we still object to the subpoena. No production.

If you want to discuss further, please let me know. We'll consider any specific and well-reasoned solutions to limiting the 30(b)(6) examination, but the idea of us doing it by written questions or limiting our time when you seek more is not going to happen.

We're fine with having the production from Carmel, Milazzo & Feil going through Floyd's of Leadville for FOL's review first. That means CMF can make a production without having to deal with any privilege issues, which I'm sure they'd appreciate. We'd want FOL to produce to us any documents for which FOL doesn't assert privilege and for FOL to send us a privilege log for any documents withheld. We, of course, would reserve the right to contest your assertion of privilege.

The subpoena has already been sent to the correct entity. At 5:05 pm (3:05 Mountain) last Friday, September 27, we sent the attached subpoena to CMF (copying the counsel in this case, including you). We fixed and re-served the subpoena once Ross Carmel informed us that CMF was the proper entity.

The Rule 30(b)(6) issue is unrelated, so that wouldn't be part of this deal.

Dan, based on that, can you confirm whether you have an objection to CMF's producing the documents to our subpoena through you?

Thanks,

And to be clear, this does not constitute a waiver of the privilege. Just that we want to review the documents before we assess that issue. We'll need to sort this out once the subpoena gets served on the correct party.

All:

Floyd's of Leadville will drop its objection to this subpoena provided that (1) the recipient produces all records to me for review first; and (2) ACLP drop its objection to FOL's 30(b)(6).
